§ 381.99 Official retention and rejection tags.

An inspector may use such tags or other devices and methods at an official establishment as may be approved by the Administrator for the identification and control of (a) poultry and poultry products which appear to be not in compliance with the regulations or which are held for further examination and (b) any equipment, utensils, rooms, or compartments at such establishments which are found to be unclean or otherwise in violation of any of the regulations. No poultry, poultry product, or other article, or equipment, utensil, room, or compartment so identified shall be used until it has been made acceptable. The Administrator has approved a paper tag (a portion of Form MP-35) bearing the legend, "U.S. Retained" for use on poultry or poultry products under this section, and has approved a paper tag (another portion of Form C&MS 510) bearing the legend "U.S. Rejected" for use on equipment, utensils, rooms and compartments under this section. Such tags are official devices and shall not be removed by anyone other than an inspector.
